The International Gathering on "Scouting and Sense of Belonging"

Dear colleagues:

The World Scout Bureau/Arab Regional Office in cooperation with the Emirates Scouts Association is organizing the International Gathering on "Scouting and Sense of Belonging". This event is in accordance with the kind invitation of H.E. Dr. Sultan Ben Muhammad Al Kassemey – member of the High Council of Emirates and the prince of Sharjah. About 60 Rovers from National Scout Organizations all over the world are expected to participate in this event under the theme of "Scouting and Sense of Belonging". The details of this event are as follows:

Objectives:

- Emphasizing the important of Scouting Relating to the sense of belonging.
- Introducing the Modern Features of Emirates.

Date: 1 – 9 April 2005

Eligibility:

- Rovers aged 18-22 years old
- Have a good command of English
- Must be registered Scout members and, their application is approved by their National Scout Organization
- Having no previous experience in the same gatherings (Youth Gatherings/ Environmental Gathering/ Cultural Gatherings) which were previously organized by the Arab Scout Region in order to pay more opportunities for more young people to participate in the event.

Program of Activities:

- A seminar on the "Role of Scouting and achieving the sense of belonging".
- Participating in the official opening ceremony of the Prominent Scout Jamboree of Sharjah.
- Field visits to the most important landmarks and museums in Emirates.
- Presenting some effective models of services which the Scout movement would like to present to the civil community.
