CIRCULAR N° 8/2004

To: International Commissioners

20 April 2004

Youth, Development & Peace

Dear colleagues,

As you may know already, a Youth, Development & Peace conference was jointly organized by the World Organization of the Scout Movement, the European Youth Forum and the World Bank. It was held in Paris on September 15-16, 2003.

The presentations, discussions, proposals and results have now been published in the form of a CD-Rom that we are pleased to send to you.

On the CD-Rom you can find, among others:

- videos of all the sessions of the conference
- reports of the regional working groups compiled by the youth rapporteurs
- reports of the thematic working groups compiled by the youth rapporteurs
- video of World Bank President James Wolfensohn's presentation in Dubai, where he reports of the conference
- video messages of the participants filmed in Paris

The CD-Rom also includes the list of participants of the conference, as well as a list of the Civil Society Liaison Officers in the World Bank country offices worldwide. We encourage you to approach them for information regarding the follow-up activities in progress in your own country.

If you want more copies of the CD-Rom for your own dissemination, please contact Arturo Romboli at aromboli@worldnet.scout.org.

We hope that the images and videos from the conference will bring to you active information on the experience in Paris, and we are sure that reading the reports and proposals will inspire you to continue the work you are doing for young people in your organization and in your community.

With best regards,

Eduardo Missoni
Secretary General
