25th Asia-Pacific Scout Jamboree, 2005 Sattahip, Thailand

Dear Colleagues:

Come and join us celebrate 50 years of Scouting in the Asia-Pacific Region!

The Asia-Pacific Scout Jamboree is being organized as a major Scout event of the region between World Scout Jamborees. This is aimed at giving additional opportunity to young people to take part in such event during his life-time as a Scout.

We are happy to inform you that National Scout Organization of Thailand is hosting the 25th APR Scout Jamboree, which will be the first Jamboree after the improved guidelines. This Jamboree, which will be held at the historic site of the 20th World Scout Jamboree, is organized to kick-off the celebration of the Golden (50th) Anniversary of the Asia-Pacific Region in 2006. Those Scouts who missed the Jamboree in Sattahip will now be able to experience the unique characteristics of the site – white sand beach, crystal blue sea water and the warm hospitality of the Thai people.

Below are the basic information of the Jamboree:

- Theme: "Scouting: The Road to Peace"
- Duration: 28 December 2005 – 3 January 2006. Participants are requested to arrive on 27 December 2005 and should leave the Jamboree Site on 4 January 2006
- Venue: Had Yao, Sattahip, Chonburi, Thailand – about 180 kms. Southeast of Bangkok. The camp site is located on a beautiful beachfront on the Gulf of Thailand.
- Jamboree Fee: An early bird rate is offered to NSOs registering BEFORE the end of June 2005. This early bird rate is US$180.00 for NSOs in Category A and B and US$270.00 for NSOs in Category C and D. The regular rate of US$200.00 for Category A and B and US$300.00 for Category C and D will be applicable for registrations received AFTER June 2005.

The fee covers food rations (for 7 days at the campsite), accommodation (tent), inland transportation, activities, Jamboree souvenirs (scarf, badge, handbook, etc.), insurance during the Jamboree and home hospitality programme.

Participants: The Jamboree Host Organizing Committee is targeting 25,000 participants from Thailand and from other countries.

Eligibility: The Jamboree is organized for young people both male and female aged 12 to 17 years old. International Service Team (IST) should be 18-35 years old.
