Partnerships for Development and Growth Fund – Important Changes

Dear friends

At the recent European Scout Committee meeting, the European Committee agreed to make changes to the process of applying for a grant from the Partnerships for Development and Growth Fund. This become effective on immediately.

1 – Applications will be considered for new projects 3 times each year. The deadlines for the remainder of this triennium are:

19 September 2008
20 February 2009
22 May 2009
18 September 2009
19 February 2010
21 May 2010

2 – The Committee Contact remains the key person to be involved in developing the partnership with the Region. Any new project should be fully discussed with the Committee Contact.

3 – Only one active project per National Scout Association can be supported at one time.

4 – The forms have been reviewed and updated and have been placed on the European website at the following location:

www.scout.org/en/around_the_world/europe/about_scouting/development_support/pdg_fund

Please note these important changes.

Please contact your Committee Contact in the first instance.

Please remember that the next deadline for applications is 19 September 2008.

Best wishes.
Yours sincerely

Annemarie Khetib
Director of Administration and Finance
