Message of the APR Scout Foundation President

Simon Hangbock Rhee
President, APR Scout Foundation

This year 2012 marks the 20th year of the APR Scout Foundation since its formal launch in 1992. While this report recounts the journey of the Foundation for two decades, it also highlights the Foundation's achievements in recent years.

In the last three years, we decided to fund more NSO projects by increasing the amount of support to initiatives that promote sustainability, build capacity, develop and promote best practices, and involve young people in their communities.

Assistance was granted to the APR flagship project – the Ticket to Life – and subsidy was provided to NSOs that hosted APR events covering all strategic areas, such as Youth Programme, Adults in Scouting, Management, Finance and Scouting Profile.

With the cooperation of NSOs and well-wishers around the world, our funds increased by US$115,000 since 2009 through new and upgraded membership, fundraising and donations during special events.

I sincerely express my thanks to Regional Scout Committee Chairman Jejomar C Binay who arranged a fundraising activity for the Foundation, to all Foundation members, and to my colleagues in the APR Foundation Management Committee.

As my farewell remarks, let me say that it has been my utmost pleasure to serve young people through the APR Scout Foundation.

Message of the Regional Scout Committee Chairman

Hon Jejomar C Binay

Chairman, APR Scout Committee

Marking the 20th year of the APR Scout Foundation calls for a celebration. We have seen the Foundation's humble beginnings, its slow but steady growth, and its sustained support to Scout projects and NSOs.

Despite the economic downturn, we managed to achieve some level of success to increase funds and fulfill the Foundation's objective of reaching out to communities in need. This triennium introduced new initiatives despite the unforeseeable drop in economies.

As Chairman of the Asia Pacific Regional Scout Committee, I express my sincerest thanks to the benefactors and supporters for their generosity and trust.

To all Foundation members, I am grateful for your faith and confidence, for spreading the word, and for continuing to support in different ways and capacities.

To all potential members, we invite you to share the experience of giving to something worthwhile, even for people you may never have the chance to meet.

I join all of you in looking forward for more years of growth for the APR Scout Foundation.

Regional Director's message

Abdullah Rasheed
Regional Director

We look to the future with optimism as we celebrate twenty years of the APR Scout Foundation. It is inspiring to look back at how acts of generosity could affect many lives in different ways.

At a glance, the Foundation supported 14 Scouting projects around the region. Young people were directly involved in these projects, whether these are disaster management, environment protection, health care, sanitation or resources development.

In the last three years, we raised US$ 115,000, and we are happy to report that we provided grants totaling to US$ 40,400.

As we enter a new chapter, it remains our duty to ensure that the APR Scout Foundation remains true to its commitment to bring positive changes to communities through Scout projects.

I thank the Foundation Management Committee and colleagues in the World Scout Bureau for their hard work and dedication, and for keeping the purpose of the Foundation alive.

APR Scout Foundation 1992 – 2012

The year 2012 marks the 20th anniversary of the APR Scout Foundation. The APR Scout Committee brought up the idea of creating the APR Scout Foundation during the 19th World Scout Jamboree in Korea back in 1991. In 1992, the Foundation was formally established with Scouts of China making the initial donation of US$10,000. In the next several years, members increased and funds grew until the first one million US dollars was reached in 1999.

Years that followed were interspersed with economic downturns, and recruiting new members was steady but on a slower pace. Despite the challenges, the Foundation managed to increase by over 80% during those difficult times, and as of September 2012, the funds reached over US$1,840,000.

The purpose

The purpose of the APR Scout Foundation is to continually build capital funds through membership recruitment of individuals, National Scout Organizations and corporations who support the worthy cause of Scouting.

Management

To ensure the continuous growth of the Foundation, a management committee is constituted every three years to oversee the affairs of the Foundation. The Scout Association of Hong Kong has been the Trustee of the Foundation since its formal establishment in 1992.

Investment Team

In September 2005, following the resolution of the 21st APR Scout Conference in Brunei Darussalam, the Foundation Committee (APRSFMC) appointed three members to comprise the Investment Team. The team is responsible for studying the current market situation and to manage investment.

Promoting the Foundation

More innovative ways were introduced to appreciate Foundation members, raise funds and recruit new members. Fundraising dinners were organized in different venues, mostly during Regional Scout Conferences and Scout Leaders Summit. Two special fundraising dinners in Manila added substantially to the fund.

It was in 2004 during the 21st APR Scout Conference when the Foundation showed appreciation to members of all categories through a fellowship dinner. This gathering carried on in succeeding regional conferences in Japan, Malaysia, and Bangladesh.

PROJECTS REVIEW

Promotion of Environmental Educations & Friendly practices through Scouts (POETS)

Bangladesh Scouts – Oct 1998 to 2001

POETS is the first project supported by the APR Scout Foundation. The project promoted health & sanitation, installation of safe drinking water facilities, massive tree plantation and animal husbandry.

Over 600 Scouts/Rovers and around 900 non-Scouts living in the community participated in the project. Together, they covered ten villages with a population of 15,000 and 3,000 households.

They started their massive promotion of living in a clean environment in their homes and immediate surroundings. They made awareness campaigns on how to be healthy and to take responsibility for the environment in their day to day practices.

Tree planting activities created employment opportunities for unemployed women and youth in the project areas.

Scouts Prepare for Emergency Medical Services

Boy Scouts of the Philippines
January 1999 – September 2002

Emergency preparedness was the second project supported by the Foundation. Initially, the project equipped more than 500 Rover Scouts with adequate skills and knowledge in performing emergency medical services. Those Rovers later served as the core group to extend emergency training courses in the different regions around the country. Most of those areas are frequently visited by calamities, such as the Bicol Region, eastern and western Visayas, northeastern and Ilocos Region, central Luzon, the National Capital Region, and southern Tagalog regions.

Subsequent training took place at the local level where Scout trainees learned how to execute first aid as well as life saving and rescue methods that they could use in times of disaster and emergency.

Rejuvenation of the Gadpuri Community

Bharat Scouts and Guides, India
October 2001 – September 2005

This learning and earning project was a breakthrough for women in a village in northern India, about 58 km away from Delhi. Initially, 100 young girls and unemployed women attended the vocational training for stitching and tailoring of various Scout materials like scarf, flags and others. The six-month training was fully subsidized by the Foundation, and after completion, the women started to earn their own income through contract based employment.

The Bharat Scouts & Guides (BS&G) provided a counterpart to the Foundation grant of US$ 15,000 for this project to continue. BS&G put up a training centre with 30 sewing machines and 2 interlock machines for more efficient production and various items were added to the Scout supplies. Finished products were handed over to the Supply Service Department of National Headquarters for distribution.

The working condition was set in a way that while earning, the women have enough time to attend to the needs of their families.

Involving Nepal Scouts in Leprosy Elimination

Nepal Scouts
April 2004 – July 2006

The World Health Organization identifies Nepal as one of the world's five high leprosy endemic countries. Taking this into account, Nepal Scouts took the challenge to help in creating wider awareness of leprosy through a project called INSILE. Over 1,600 Scout Leaders and more than 24,000 Scouts and Rovers were trained to recognize a leprosy patient and to deal with suspected cases. The aim of the project was to lessen, if not neutralize, leprosy in fifty districts. The service was extended to over 127,000 households in a population of 546,000.

Scouts showed care and acceptance to those afflicted through sustained visits, with hope that in time, the patient's self-esteem would be restored.

This project was funded with the support of Herman Hui as former chairman of the Foundation Management Committee and the Girl Guides and Boy Scouts Aid of Denmark.

Restoration of Pedro Camp in Nuwara Eliya

Sri Lanka Scouts Association
February 2006 – December 2007

Pedro Scouts Camp is the first income-generating project funded by the Foundation. The Foundation funded this project under its new policy of extending support to NSOs through interest free loan for income generating projects. The loan is payable in seven years.

Pedro Scouts Camp is a training center of Sri Lanka Scouts Association (SLSA). The campsite was in need of restoration to attract Scouts and backpackers to visit and use its facilities and enjoy the nature rich surroundings. Through Foundation support, construction started and facilities were upgraded.

Before construction, the camp could only accommodate 30 people. With the completion of the project's phase one, the camp hosted the South Asia Foundation Scout Friendship Camp in February 2006, housing over 160 participants from different south Asian countries. They were the first to enjoy the facilities.

SLSA continued to renovate and rehabilitate other areas of the camp and built a new facility called Scout Lodge. This was the main profit center. Since the lodge opened, demand for accommodation by Scouts and non-Scouts increased. All Wood Badge courses are now held here. Families of Scouts and leaders come to stay and other organizations use the facilities for a fee.

Building renovation of Mongolia NHQ

Mongolia Scouts Association
February – September 2006

In 2006, the Foundation approved another income-generating project for the Scout Association of Mongolia, the reconstruction of its NHQ building located at a prime area of Ulaanbaatar. The association pursued this project to take advantage of the high demand in real estate.

After the construction, the property earned US$ 12,000.00 a year from lease, Scout supply service, and other activities held there. With the supply service, they now have the capacity to provide uniform and other Scouting gears to their members.

To maximize their resources, the association disposed the property in 2011 at a higher cost, enabling them to pay off their loans and acquire a new Scout Headquarters building at the center of Ulaanbaatar.

Nepal Scouts welcome expansion

Nepal Scouts
June 2006 – December 2007

The construction of commercial buildings in Nepal is the third income-generating project of the Foundation. Nepal Scouts has an unutilized land on a prime location in the heart of Kathmandu.

Nepal Scouts applied for interest free loan from the Foundation to start the construction. Nowadays the row of commercial stalls is leased out to investors, earning around US$43,000 a year.

With these funds, Nepal Scouts has the capacity to support Scouting activities at the remote districts of Nepal. The vision of building expansion to earn income and sustain Scouting in far-flung areas was not at all a remote possibility and was realized within a short period of time.

Sense of belonging through Ticket to Life

Ticket to Life
Asia-Pacific Regional Office
January 2007 - ongoing

The Ticket to Life (TTL) is a regional flagship project in the Asia-Pacific Region serving young people who are living in difficult circumstances to have better opportunities through Scouting.

Since 2006, TTL has been helping young people to cope with life by equipping them with life skills through their involvement in a Scout troop. So far, there are over 30 TTL troops running in Bangladesh, India, Indonesia, Mongolia, Nepal, Pakistan, Philippines and Sri Lanka.

Presently, there are over 1,200 TTL Scouts, out of which, 196 have completed their vocational training and five have advanced to the highest rank in Scouting.

Co-funders of TTL project are the Queen Sylvia Fund (through the World Scout Foundation), Boy Scouts of America, Scout Association of Japan and Eric Frank Foundation.

Scouts for Conservation of Wildlife

Bangladesh Scouts
February 2007 – June 2009

Bangladesh Scouts has been engaged in community development since the early 1970s. Their mission is to promote development activities in multi-dimensional ways. They initiated different programs for environmental promotion.

The burden of environmental exploitation falls on the remote villages that result in migration from rural areas to urban slums, and this accelerates more malpractices against the environment.

Since 2003, Scouts worked with UNEP on a project called "Treat the Nature with Care". One of their activities is a campaign for Wildlife Conservation which the Foundation decided to support.

Over 200 Scouts joined the orientation and created promotional materials such as posters and booklets on wildlife conservation. In December 2007, simultaneous rallies were organized in 64 districts campaigning for environmental awareness.

Rover Peace Baton

Asia-Pacific Regional Office
August 2006 – March 2007

On the occasion of the Asia-Pacific Region's Golden Jubilee Year (1956-2006) and welcoming the centenary of Scouting around the world (2007), the Rover Peace Baton Relay was organized in all corners across the region. This activity was held in all member-countries to directly engage young people in the advocacy for peace.

Starting August 2006, the baton was relayed from one hand to another and from country to country, where it created significant publicity and visibility, with young people at the forefront of sending out peace messages.

The baton was divided into three parts to cover northeast Asia, south Asia, southeast Asia and Oceania, travelling 40,000 km and passing through 24 member-countries. Over 150,000 Scouts and leaders, government personalities, community leaders, partners and various sectors joined the relay. Seven countries managed to involve their Head of State in the campaign.

Coming from three major directions, the three pieces of the baton were rejoined in March 2007 in Manila with a simple but symbolic ceremony.

The baton is made of brass metal that signifies strength of character and love for peace. The joint baton symbolizes unity.

Community Development Center

Scout Association of Mongolia
March – December 2009

“Ger” is derived from the Mongolian traditional felt tent. About a million residents are living in the communities of Ger district, 49% of which are young people aging 17 years and below.

Through the construction of a Community Development Center funded by the Foundation, SAM is registering open troops for young people in the Ger District. The center caters to their needs especially those who are out of school.

For two years, training has been extended to over 8,000 Scouts and non-Scouts. Benefiting from this center are youth not only in the Ger district but from nearby villages, who are interested in Scouting.

Nowadays Scouts hold troop meetings, organize joint projects with the community and conduct life skills training at the centre. Local and international Rover Scouts and Leaders from the UK, Germany, Denmark, Japan and France, have supported the training.
