13th Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Moot/21st Australian Rover Moot

Dear Colleagues,

Greetings from the Asia-Pacific Support Centre!

Further to the invitation letter sent by the host Scouts Australia to all International Commissioners, we are pleased to invite all National Scout Organization in the Asia-Pacific Region to this upcoming 13th Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Moot/21st Australian Rover Moot scheduled from 30 December 2019 to 10 January 2020 at Canberra, Australia.

The Rover Moot will include a wide and varied programme showcasing the theme "Creating Better Rovers". The programme will include five days of an expedition phase, as well as seven days of onsite and offsite activities on participant's choice. Activities will provide a chance to experience local attraction, tradition, as well as core Scouting skills.

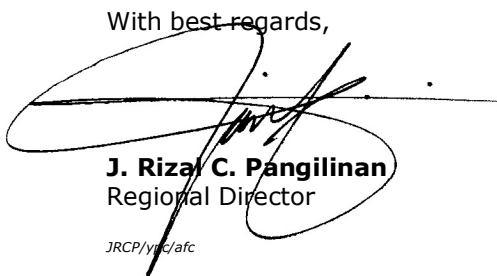

A scholarship for deserving Rovers was also offered by Scouts Australia for members of WOSM Category A and B countries. Further information and registration can be found on this link bit.ly/aprmoot.

Applications are already open and a number of national Scout organizations has already expressed interest to send contingent to this event. Please note that the online application will close on 30 June 2019 for all international participants. The strict deadline of 30 June 2019 was set in consultation with the Australian Government, primarily for the purpose of visa applications. Visas to enter Australia for this event requires a MINIMUM of six months prior to the event to be considered.

For more information, visit the event's website, <http://cbrmoot.scouts.com.au/> or their Facebook page at www.facebook.com/CBRmoot. You may also get in touch with the Moot Secretariat at info@cbrmoot.scouts.com.au.

Thank you for your usual cooperation.

With best regards,

J. Rizal C. Pangilinan
