"The values of the Scout Movement and let us also not forget the Girl Guides, are what we need for the youth everywhere. I am saying so because they are holistic. They do not deal with just one or another aspect of our living situation. The Scout ethos reaches for the individual and at the centre of the discipline it inculcates is the desire to sacrifice, to provide for, and to live for other human beings."

H.E Flt. Lt Jerry John Rawlings, Former President of the Republic of Ghana, Speaking at the 16th Africa Scout Conference in Kampala, Uganda in August 2015
