

CIRCULAR NO. 1, Series of 2003

13 January 2003

Dear Colleagues,

1st Asia-Pacific Scout Photo Contest 2003

Scouts and Scouters in the Asia-Pacific Region are invited to participate in the 1st Asia-Pacific Scout Photo contest organized jointly by the Asia-Pacific Regional Public Relations Committee and the Scout Association of Japan. The contest is intended to contribute in enhancing the visibility of scouting within the community through the collection of excellent pictures of Scouts in action, showing their positive and enjoyable aspects, and to improve their technical skills in photography by providing incentives for taking good pictures!

RULES

1. What pictures? Pictures showing various aspects of scouting: Jamborees and other field activities, ceremonies, training scenes, community services, international exchanges, etc. All pictures made by film or digital cameras can be accepted. Pictures must not be larger than A4 size.
2. Who can participate? All Scouts and Scouters registered in a National Scout Organization (NSO) in the Asia-Pacific Region.
3. Where to send? All pictures must be sent to the World Scout Bureau-Asia-Pacific Regional Office through the National Scout Organization of the country.
4. Selection and prizes. Pictures will be selected by an international panel of judges headed by Mr. Shotaro Akiyama, former President of Japan Photographers' Association. 1st, 2nd and 3rd Prizes and other prizes will be given. Special prizes will be awarded to excellent pictures taken by Scouts under the age of 15.

NOTES

- All pictures entering the contest shall not be returned (unless specially requested).
- Negatives or digital data of prize winning pictures will be requested by the organizers.
- The right to use winning pictures for publication, exhibition, and other scout activities belong to the WOSM and its members.
- Each picture must have the Entry Form cut out or copied (see attached form) properly filled in necessary information and pasted on the back side of the photo.

Closing date is 28th February 2003.
