2nd Asia-Pacific Scout Photo Contest 2004

Dear Colleagues,

After the success of the 1st Asia-Pacific Scout Photo contest organized early this year, the Asia-Pacific Region invites the participation of your Scouts and Scout Leaders to the second regional contest to be held in February 2004 in conjunction with the national photo contest of the Scout Association of Japan.

The contest is jointly organized by the Asia-Pacific Regional Public Relations Committee, the Regional Office, with the annual sponsorship of the Scout Association of Japan for five years. The objective is to contribute to the visibility of Scouting through the collection of excellent pictures of Scouts in action, reflecting the values of Scouting, and to help improve the skills of Scouts and Leaders in photography.

RULES

1. What pictures? Pictures showing various aspects of scouting: Jamborees and other field activities, ceremonies, training scenes, community services, international exchanges, etc. All pictures made by film or digital cameras can be accepted. Pictures must not be larger than A4 size.
2. Who can participate? All Scouts and Scouters registered in a National Scout Organization (NSO) in the Asia-Pacific Region.
3. Where to send? All pictures must be sent to the World Scout Bureau-Asia-Pacific Regional Office through the National Scout Organization of the country.
4. Selection and prizes. Pictures will be selected by an international panel of judges in Japan. 1st, 2nd and 3rd Prizes and other prizes will be given. Special prizes will be awarded to excellent pictures taken by Scouts under the age of 15.

NOTES

- All pictures entering the contest shall not be returned.
- Negatives or digital data of prize winning pictures may be requested by the organizers.
- The right to use winning pictures for publication, exhibition, and other scout activities belongs to the WOSM and its members.
- Each picture must have the Entry Form cut out or copied (see attached form) properly filled in necessary information and pasted on the back side of the photo.

Closing date is 31 December 2003.
