Part I: Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Youth Forum

I. Introduction

Asia-Pacific Regional (APR) Scout Youth Forums provide opportunities for young people in Scouting to express their views and make recommendations on issues of interest to them; and to develop the skills necessary to strengthen their capacity to take part in decision-making processes.

APR Scout Youth Forums also provide an opportunity for the World Organization of the Scout Movement – at Regional, National and local levels – to listen to the views of young members on issues that concern them.

APR Scout Youth Forums constitute one approach, among many, towards the implementation of the Policy on Involvement of Young Members in Decision-Making, adopted by the 33rd World Scout Conference in 1993.

This document has been developed based upon the experiences of previous World Scout Youth Forums and APR Scout Youth Forums – in Singapore 1995, Hong Kong 1998, India 2002 and Brunei Darussalam 2004. This guideline also took into consideration the proposed Rules of Procedure for World Scout Youth Forums, drawn up by the participants of the 5th World Scout Youth Forum held in Kandersteg, Switzerland 1992.

The Guidelines for the APR Scout Youth Forum have been approved and adopted by the APR Scout Committee in its meeting on 19 July 1993 in Bangkok, Thailand. Furthermore, this guideline has been revised based on the paper entitled, Youth Involvement in the Asia Pacific Regional Scout Committee including Sub-Committees and Work Streams, which was approved by the APR Scout Committee in June 2004.

This guideline has been further revised in April 2006 during the meeting of the APR Programme Sub-Committee to “fine-tune” provisions, consistent to the document ‘Youth Involvement in the Asia Pacific Regional Scout Committee including Sub-Committees and Work Streams.’

This guideline has been revised by the APR Scout Committee, at its meeting on 14-15 April 2007 in Tokyo, Japan to add one more Vice-Chairman as member of the Steering Committee that should come from the host country.

The APR Scout Committee has again amended this guideline during its meeting on 25-26 April 2009 in Kuala Lumpur, increasing the maximum number of participants for the APR Scout Youth Forum per member country.

The Youth Forum Guideline is further amended and approved by the APR Scout Committee at their meeting of 16 April 2011 in Makati, Philippines, clarifying the role of national Scout organizations (NSOs) in preparing and supporting young people in their attendance to the Youth Forum.

Because of the changes in the APR Scout Constitution, the APR Scout Committee has further amended this guideline during its meeting on 21-22 October 2014 in Ulaanbaatar, incorporating a number of new provisions concerning YAMG.

The APR Scout Committee further revised the Youth Forum Guideline, at their meeting of 21 October 2017 in Singapore, incorporating several provisions, namely: 1) Defining the composition of the Steering Committee; 2) Introduction of a Recommendations Committee; 3) Clarifying the responsibilities of Host National Scout Organization; and 4) Incorporating the election procedure of the YAMG.

II. Purpose

Thus, APR Scout Youth Forums can prepare proposals that may be voted on by the APR Scout Conference, provided the APR Scout Committee or a recognized NSO formally presents the proposals to the Conference.

Furthermore, APR Scout Youth Forum provides the opportunity for delegates and observers to develop the necessary practical skills to enable them to take part more effectively in the decision-making activities and undertake leadership roles both within and outside the Movement for their own personal development.

III. Objectives of the Forum

In conjunction with the APR Scout Conference, the APR Scout Youth Forum is organized, with the support of the APR Programme Sub-Committee, to:

- 1) Provide a learning environment through discussions on interesting topics and sharing of experiences;
- 2) Enhance participants' their decision-making skills for Scouting and society in general;
- 3) Develop friendship among the participants; and create networks that can be continued beyond the forum; and
- 4) Give relevant input, proposals, and recommendations. These recommendations will be presented at the Regional Scout Conference.

IV. The Regional Scout Youth Forum and the Regional Scout Conference

Some NSOs have young people in their National Executive Board. They, too, are ideal participants of the Youth Forum.
- d) If there is no institutional structure in place or resources available to send appropriate representatives, the selection process should take into consideration the participants' capacity to contribute to the Forum discussions.

4) Representation

- a) In the selecting their participants, NSOs should attempt to achieve an even representation of the types of geographical, ethnic and social backgrounds found in their country.
- b) Where the NSO includes both male and female as young members, it is recommended that one delegate be male and the other female.

and conducting the Forum;

The World Scout Bureau/Asia-Pacific Region will offer whatever assistance it can in identifying sources of funding, including special projects.
- 5) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the fee for the APR Scout Youth Forum should be kept as low as possible to encourage participation by young people from as many countries as possible.
