Guidelines For Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Youth Forum

I. Introduction

Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Youth Forums provide opportunities for young people in Scouting to express their views and make recommendations on issues of interest to them; and to develop the skills necessary to strengthen their capacity to take part in decision-making processes.

Asia-Pacific Regional Youth Forums also provide an opportunity for the World Organization of the Scout Movement – at Regional, National and local levels – to listen to the views of young members on issues that concern them.

Asia-Pacific Regional Youth Forums constitute one approach, among many, towards the implementation of the Policy on Involvement of Young Members in Decision-Making, adopted by the 33rd World Scout Conference in 1993.

This document have been developed based upon the experience of previous World Scout Youth Forums and the previous APR Scout Youth Forum held in Singapore 1995, Hong Kong 1998, India 2002 and Brunei Darussalam 2005. The proposed Rules of Procedure for World Scout Youth Forums, drawn up by the participants of the 5th World Scout Youth Forum held in Kandersteg, Switzerland 1992.

The Guidelines for APR Youth Forum have been approved and adopted by the APR Scout Committee in its meeting on 19 July 1993 in Bangkok, Thailand. Furthermore, this guideline have been revised based on the paper entitled, Youth Involvement in the Asia Pacific Regional Scout Committee including Sub-Committees and Work Streams, which was approved by the APR Scout Committee on June 2004.

This guideline has been further revised on April 2006 during the meeting of the APR Programme Sub-Committee to “fine-tune” provisions, consistent to the document ‘Youth Involvement in the Asia Pacific Regional Scout Committee including Sub-Committees and Work Streams.’

II. Purpose

Thus, Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Youth Forums can prepare proposals that may be voted on by the Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Conference, provided the Asia-Pacific Regional Committee or a recognized National Scout Organization formally presents the proposals to the Conference.

Furthermore, Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Youth Forum provides the opportunity for delegates and observers to develop the necessary practical skills to enable them to take part more effectively in the decision-making activities and undertake leadership roles both within and outside the Movement for their own personal development.

III. Objectives of the Forum

In conjunction with the Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Conference, the Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Youth Forum is organized, with the support of the APR Programme Sub-Committee, to:

At the end of this presentation, the Youth Forum Chairman will give a copy of all the recommendations to the Regional Scout Committee; a copy will also be given to each National Scout Organization present at the Conference.
The written report of the Youth Forum shall contain all the recommendations adopted by the delegates. It shall also contain a summary of the most important discussions and events of the Forum. The General Rapporteur is responsible for the editing of the report. Support for translation, layout and publication is provided by the World Scout Bureau/Asia-Pacific Region.

As pointed out in the Constitution and By-Laws of the Asia-Pacific Region, any member national Scout organization, supported or seconded by another member national Scout organization, can pick-up any or all recommendation/s of the Youth Forum and put them forward as proposed resolutions to the conference.

One year before the following A-P Regional Youth Forum, the Chairman of YAM will prepare a report of what has happened since the last Youth Forum. This report will be submitted to the Planning Committee of the next APR Youth Forum.

IX. Financial Matters

1) In principle, the same policies and procedures concerning financial matters that apply to Regional Scout Conferences apply to Regional Youth Forums; this includes the self-financing nature of all Regional Events and the responsibility of the host National Scout Organization to cover any eventual financial deficit.

2) Since Regional Youth Forum run in conjunction with Regional Scout Conferences, financial matters, such as budget and financial control for the two events, may be combined;

3) The host National Scout Organization must establish, jointly with the World Scout Bureau/Asia-Pacific Region, the Regional Youth Forum budget reflecting all income and expenditures associated with the event. In this regard, budgeted expenditure must include costs to be incurred by the Host Committee, the Planning Committee and the World Scout Bureau/Asia-Pacific Region in all phases of planning and conducting the Forum;

4) The host National Scout Organization must propose to the A-P Regional Scout Committee, for its approval, the fee for the A-P Regional Youth Forum on the basis of the provisional budget. Moreover, the host National Scout Organization, which assumes the final financial result at the closing of the accounts for the event, must raise the necessary funds to provide that part of the budgeted income that is not covered by the participant’s fees. The World Scout Bureau/Asia-Pacific Region will offer whatever assistance it can in identifying sources of funding, including special projects.

5) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the fee for the A-P Regional Youth Forum should be kept as low as possible to encourage participation by young people from as many countries as possible. In addition, the host National Scout Organization is encouraged to consider what possibilities may exist, through the fee structure or other means of demonstrating solidarity, to facilitate the participation of young people from less wealthy countries.

X. Other Responsibilities of the Host National Scout Organization

1) In principle, the National Scout Organization hosting the A-P Regional Youth Forum fulfils the same responsibilities for the Youth Forum as for a Regional Scout Conference. Since the two events run in conjunction, many common procedures may be combined.

2) The host National Scout Organization, thus, arranges for government support. This support shall include the assurance of entry for Youth Forum participants from all member countries, provide the venue (meeting rooms, offices and equipment), arrange for participant’s reception, inland transportation and accommodation, organize the opening and closing ceremony and social programme, and provide necessary staff to support the Youth Forum.

XI. Responsibilities of the Regional Scout Committee

1) The A-P Regional Scout Committee is responsible for the approval of the theme and agenda of the A-P Regional Youth Forum, as recommended by the Planning Committee.

2) The A-P Regional Scout Committee must devote the necessary resources, similar to those accorded to Scout Conferences, to ensure the success of the A-P Regional Youth Forum. This includes secretarial and translation support. The Planning Committee, through the World Scout Bureau/Asia-Pacific Regional Office, must provide appropriate support to the Steering Committee in following up the conclusions of the Youth Forum.

3) The A-P Regional Scout Committee is responsible for studying the recommendations of the APR Scout Youth Forum. The A-P Regional Scout Committee shall consider these recommendations and may include them as actions steps of the Triennial Plan.

This guideline has been amended by the Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Committee, during their meeting on 25-26 April 2009 in Kuala Lumpur, revising item V.2.c. and incorporating an additional provision – item V.2.d.
