Launching the new WOSM Members Portal

Dear Friends,

Digital transformation and innovation are crucial to the continued quality of the support available to National Scout Organizations (NSOs). The launch of the WOSM Services in 2019 was a first big step along this transformational journey, and we are now pleased to introduce you to our new WOSM Members Portal.

The WOSM Members Portal will provide easy access to the integrated support WOSM offers to NSOs and all internal information of WOSM. We invite you to explore by visiting scout.org/members!

Information continues to be populated in phases to the new WOSM Members Portal, so we will continue to keep all NSOs updated as this progresses. Unlike the previous Intranet, general access to the WOSM Members Portal is open for everyone in our Movement to help increase transparency and access to internal information of WOSM. However, access for viewing and updating detailed information of NSOs requires additional access rights for official appointees.

As part of the WOSM Members Portal, we also introduce to you the new online World Scouting Directory where you can access all contact information of WOSM! We have worked to make this information more accessible and decentralize our efforts to keep contact details up to date.

International Commissioners have been granted NSO Admin access to ensure the regular update of their NSOs contact information. Details about this admin access and available support can be read here. The public view of the Directory allows anyone to access organisational information, whereas official appointees of NSOs can login to also view contact details of official appointees across the Movement. If you do not have the correct access, please message digital@scout.org with the email address of your scout.org profile.

In using the Directory, please pay particular attention to data privacy and respect all details with the highest sensitivity. You can read our privacy policy at this link. Remember that using the Directory furthers your agreement to the scout.org terms and conditions.
